EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Chloe Choudhury is recognized for her outstanding scholastic achievements and passion for music. Chloe participates in the DUKE Tip Program through Duke University and maintains an academic excellence of 95% average. She actively participates in Girl Scouts and enjoys playing the piano, horse riding, swimming, soccer and volunteering for community events.

Chloe's strongest passion is music and singing. Today at 11 years of age, she has opened many international and local events; opening the Skeeter's game at Constellation Field on August 14, 2013; and on November 09 opened the Diwali Mela event at Constellation singing the Indian National Anthem. Chloe was scouted at the Skeeter's game and invited to Nashville to record her first single, Katy Perry's "Roar", on September 02, 2013.

Chloe has a servant heart and commitment to making the community a better place through her community spirit of service to others and volunteering for community events.
